

LOVE IN ACTION

HUSBANDS TO WIVES

Take your leadership role in the home seriously-lead them.

Tell her you love her.

Do family devotions daily.

Carve out times to be alone together, whether it's a date night, or time away, or even a night at home with no interruptions.

Take care of yourself; practice good hygiene.

Set a good example for your children.

Maintain your own personal Bible time.

Listen to her opinions and consider...sometimes this is God speaking to you through her. Value her wisdom.

Serve in ministry with her.

Ask for forgiveness when necessary - Admit you were wrong when you were.

Give her undivided attention when she is talking to you. Listen.

Establish a family budget.

Gladly run errands for her.

Do not disagree with her in the presence of others. Do it privately.

Always hold her in high regard and do not speak poorly of her.
